

Documentary Tackles Nuclear Dangers, Features Shultz, Perry, Kissinger, and Nunn

Can you imagine Henry Kissinger proposing a world free of nuclear weapons? Now you don't have to.

Come see Nuclear Tipping Point, in which the architect of realpolitik joins three other veterans of the Cold War – George Shultz, Bill Perry and Sam Nunn – to call for a return to the vision of Reykjavik, a world in which nuclear weapons are but a distant nightmare of the past.

The film will be followed by a discussion about what each of us can do to help bring about this momentous change.
